Import of Sugar from Pakistan

646. SHRI K. R. MALKANI: Will the Minister of COMMERCE be pleased to state:

(a) whether Government imported huge quantities of sugar from Pakistan;

(b) what was the rationale for these imports;

(c) whether this has not hurt our own sugar industry; and

(d) whether all this has not cost us an additional sugar subsidy of Rs. 500 crores?

THE MINISTER OF COMMERCE (SHRI RAMAKRISHNA HEGDE): (a) and (b) Government has not imported any sugar either in this financial year or in the last year on its account. However, under the current Export-Import Policy, the imports of sugar are free and are undertaken by private parties keeping their commercial interest in view.

(c) Representations mere received from the sugar industry for enhancement of import duty. Keeping all factors in view, the import duty on sugar was raised from 5% to 20% alongwith continuance of countervailing duty (CVD) of Rs. 850 per tonne w.e.f. 13.1.99.

(d) No, Sir.
